

Great Creations

CLIENT SERVICE TERMS

Last revised April 2026. Binding upon all Clients from the date of account creation.

These Client Service Terms are automatically in effect for all Clients of Great Creations and its subsidiary Great Creation Studios (collectively, "Great Creations"). By requesting, accepting, or paying for any creative services, the Client agrees to be bound by these terms. These terms exist to establish clear expectations and protect both parties.

1. Applicability

These terms apply to every project, task, or service engagement between Great Creations and the Client, unless explicitly superseded by a separate written project agreement. Where a project-specific agreement exists, these terms still apply to all matters not addressed by that agreement. These terms apply regardless of the Client's geographic location and are governed by Canadian law.

2. How Projects Work

All projects follow Great Creations' standard workflow: the Client provides a brief or description of the work needed; Great Creations provides a quote, scope outline, and estimated timeline; work begins upon the Client's acceptance and receipt of the required deposit; proofs and deliverables are presented through the Client Portal for review; the Client provides feedback through the portal's annotation and messaging tools; revisions are made within the agreed revision rounds; and final deliverables are released upon Client approval and receipt of full payment.

3. Client Responsibilities

The Client is responsible for: providing complete and accurate project requirements, brand assets, and reference materials in a timely manner; designating a single point of contact authorized to give feedback and approve deliverables; reviewing and responding to proofs within five (5) business days of delivery to the Client Portal; consolidating all feedback into unified revision requests rather than piecemeal changes; and notifying Great Creations promptly of any concerns, changes in direction, or issues that may affect the project. Delays caused by the Client may result in adjusted timelines and, where significant, revised pricing.

4. Payment Terms

All pricing is in Canadian dollars (CAD). A non-refundable deposit of fifty percent (50%) of the quoted project fee is required before work begins. For projects under $500 CAD, full payment in advance may be required. For projects over $10,000 CAD, a milestone-based payment schedule may be established. All invoices are due within thirty (30) days. Late payments accrue interest at 1.5% per month (18% per annum). Great Creations reserves the right to pause or suspend work on any project with an unpaid balance exceeding thirty (30) days. Final deliverables and source files are not released until all outstanding payments are received. The Client is responsible for all applicable Canadian taxes (GST/HST/PST). International Clients are responsible for any duties, taxes, or fees imposed by their local jurisdiction. Full payment and dispute terms are set out in the Payment and Dispute Resolution Terms.

5. Ownership and Licensing

Great Creations retains full ownership of all work until the Client has paid in full. Upon receipt of complete payment, the Client receives a perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide licence to use the final approved deliverables for the purposes discussed during the project. This licence does not include the right to resell, sublicense, or redistribute the work as a standalone product or template, claim authorship of the work, or modify the work in a way that misrepresents Great Creations' original creative intent and then attribute it to Great Creations. Preliminary concepts, rejected directions, and unused drafts remain the property of Great Creations. Great Creations retains the permanent, non-revocable right to display, reference, and promote all completed work in its portfolio, website, social media, case studies, award submissions, pitch decks, and marketing materials. Full intellectual property terms are set out in the Intellectual Property Terms.

6. Revisions

Each project includes a defined number of revision rounds, communicated at the time of quoting. A revision is a set of changes submitted together through the Client Portal as a single unified request. Submitting changes one at a time across multiple messages does not extend the revision count. Changes to an approved direction, addition of new elements not in the original scope, or changes requested after a deliverable has been formally approved are considered new work and billed at Great Creations' standard hourly rate. Great Creations will notify the Client before commencing work that falls outside the included scope.

7. Approval and Sign-Off

The Client must provide explicit approval through the Client Portal or in writing before Great Creations proceeds from one project phase to the next. Once a deliverable is approved, the Client accepts it as meeting the agreed specifications. Post-approval changes are new work. If the Client does not respond to a proof or deliverable within fifteen (15) business days, Great Creations may treat the deliverable as approved and proceed accordingly.

8. Cancellation by the Client

The Client may cancel a project with thirty (30) days' written notice. Upon cancellation, the Client is responsible for payment of all work completed to date, calculated at the agreed rate or Great Creations' standard hourly rate, whichever applies. Deposits are non-refundable but are credited toward any balance owed for completed work. Great Creations will provide all completed work-in-progress upon receipt of outstanding payments. Cancellation does not release the Client from confidentiality obligations or any other surviving terms.

9. Cancellation by Great Creations

Great Creations reserves the right to terminate a project or the business relationship with thirty (30) days' written notice, or immediately if: the Client fails to pay after reasonable notice; the Client's conduct is abusive, threatening, or unreasonably disruptive; the Client repeatedly fails to provide required materials or feedback; or continuing the relationship would be harmful to Great Creations' business, reputation, or team. Great Creations reserves the right to revoke portal access at its discretion following termination.

10. Liability

Great Creations' total liability for any claim related to a project is limited to the fees paid by the Client for that specific project. Great Creations is not liable for any indirect, consequential, incidental, or special damages, including lost profits, lost business, or costs of substitute services. Great Creations is not liable for delays, errors, or failures caused by inaccurate or late information from the Client, the Client's unauthorized use of deliverables, third-party services or platforms outside Great Creations' control, or events of force majeure.

11. Indemnification

The Client agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Great Creations from any claims, damages, losses, costs, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising from: materials provided by the Client that infringe the rights of any third party; the Client's use of deliverables in an unauthorized manner or in violation of these terms; false representations made by the Client; or the Client's breach of any obligation under these terms or related policies.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These terms are governed by the federal laws of Canada and the provincial laws applicable in the provinces in which Great Creations operates. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the province of Great Creations' principal place of business. International Clients consent to Canadian jurisdiction by engaging Great Creations' services. The parties agree to attempt good-faith negotiation and, if necessary, mediation before pursuing litigation.

13. Amendments

Great Creations may update these terms at any time. Changes are communicated through the Client Portal. Continued engagement of services after notification constitutes acceptance.

