

Great Creations

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Last revised April 2026. Binding upon all Clients from the date of account creation.

This Confidentiality Policy is automatically in effect for all Clients of Great Creations. By engaging services or accessing the Client Portal, the Client agrees to the confidentiality obligations set out below. These obligations are mutual.

1. Scope

This policy governs the handling of confidential information exchanged between Great Creations and its subsidiary Great Creation Studios (collectively, "Great Creations") and its Clients during the course of any business relationship. It applies to all Clients regardless of geographic location and is governed by Canadian law.

2. What Is Confidential

Confidential information includes any non-public information disclosed by either party, whether orally, in writing, electronically, or by observation, including but not limited to:

- Business plans, strategies, financial information, pricing, and client lists;
- Creative works, designs, mockups, wireframes, prototypes, and proofs at any stage;
- Source code, algorithms, system architecture, and technical documentation;
- Marketing strategies, brand guidelines, campaign plans, and market research;
- Trade secrets, proprietary processes, and intellectual property;
- Personal data and any data subject to privacy regulations;
- All communications exchanged through the Client Portal.

3. Great Creations' Obligations to the Client

Great Creations agrees to hold all Client information in strict confidence, use Client information solely for the purpose of delivering the agreed services, limit internal access to Client information to team members with a legitimate need, not disclose Client information to third parties without prior written consent except as required by law, and implement reasonable security measures to protect Client data from unauthorized access or disclosure.

4. Client Obligations to Great Creations

The Client agrees to hold all Great Creations proprietary information in strict confidence, including but not limited to: pricing structures, internal processes, and business methods; unpublished creative work, design concepts, and work-in-progress materials; portal features, system architecture, and technical implementation details; and any information Great Creations identifies as confidential. The Client must not disclose Great Creations' confidential information to any third party, use Great Creations' methods or processes for the benefit of competitors, screenshot, record, or reproduce unpublished designs without consent, or share portal access credentials with unauthorized individuals.

5. Exclusions

Information is not considered confidential if it: is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the receiving party; was already known to the receiving party prior to disclosure; is independently developed without reference to the confidential information; is lawfully received from a third party without restriction; or is required to be disclosed by Canadian law, regulation, or court order.

6. Duration

The confidentiality obligations in this policy take effect upon account creation and remain in force for the duration of the business relationship and for a period of three (3) years following its termination, regardless of the reason for termination.

7. Return of Materials

Upon termination of the business relationship or upon written request, each party shall promptly return or destroy all tangible and electronic copies of the other party's confidential information that are not required to be retained by law.

8. Remedies

Both parties acknowledge that a breach of this policy may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy. The non-breaching party is entitled to seek injunctive relief in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity, in the courts of the province of Great Creations' principal place of business, Canada.

9. International Clients

This policy is governed by the federal laws of Canada and the provincial laws applicable in the provinces in which Great Creations operates. By engaging Great Creations' services, international Clients consent to the jurisdiction of Canadian courts for matters arising under this policy.