

Great Creations

PAYMENT & DISPUTE RESOLUTION TERMS

Last revised April 2026. Binding upon all Clients from the date of account creation.

These terms govern all financial matters between Great Creations and its subsidiary Great Creation Studios (collectively, "Great Creations") and its Clients. By engaging Great Creations' services, the Client agrees to these terms. All amounts are in Canadian dollars (CAD).

1. Currency and Taxes

All quotes, invoices, and payments are in Canadian dollars (CAD). International Clients are responsible for any currency conversion fees charged by their financial institutions. All quoted prices are exclusive of applicable taxes. Canadian Clients will be charged the applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) or Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) and, where applicable, Provincial Sales Tax (PST). International Clients are responsible for any import duties, withholding taxes, value-added taxes, or other taxes imposed by their local jurisdiction. Great Creations is not responsible for collecting or remitting taxes on behalf of foreign jurisdictions.

2. Quotes and Estimates

All quotes are valid for thirty (30) days from the date of issue unless otherwise stated. Quotes are based on the scope described at the time of quoting. If the scope changes after acceptance, Great Creations will provide a revised quote before proceeding. Estimates for hourly work are provided in good faith but are not guaranteed. Great Creations will notify the Client if hours are likely to exceed the original estimate by more than fifteen percent (15%).

3. Deposits

A non-refundable deposit is required before work begins on any project. The standard deposit is fifty percent (50%) of the quoted project fee. For projects under $500 CAD, full payment in advance may be required. For projects over $10,000 CAD, a milestone-based payment schedule may be established. The deposit secures Great Creations' time and resources. If the Client cancels after the deposit is paid, the deposit is non-refundable but is credited toward any balance owed for work completed to date.

4. Invoicing and Payment

Item	Terms
Invoice delivery	Through the Client Portal or by email
Payment due date	Thirty (30) days from date of invoice
Accepted methods	Bank transfer (e-Transfer, wire), cheque, or approved digital payment
Late payment interest	1.5% per month (18% per annum) on the outstanding balance
NSF / returned payments	$50 CAD administration fee per occurrence

5. Consequences of Non-Payment

- After 30 days: Great Creations may pause all active work and withhold any deliverables pending payment.
- After 60 days: Great Creations may terminate the project and immediately revoke Client Portal access. Interest continues to accrue.
- After 90 days: Great Creations may engage a collections agency or pursue legal action. The Client is responsible for all collection costs and legal fees incurred.

No deliverables are released until all outstanding balances are paid. This includes final files, source files, and any work-in-progress. Great Creations retains full ownership of all unpaid work.

6. Refunds

Deposits are non-refundable but are credited toward any balance owed for completed work. Refunds for completed work are not provided, as creative services cannot be returned. If Great Creations fails to deliver work that meets agreed specifications after all included revision rounds have been exhausted, Great Creations will, at its sole discretion: perform additional revisions at no charge, or issue a partial credit toward a future project. Full refunds are issued only in the rare event that Great Creations is unable to begin work after accepting payment, through no fault of the Client.

7. Scope Changes and Additional Costs

If the Client requests work outside the original scope, Great Creations will provide a written estimate before proceeding. The Client must approve additional costs in writing (via the Client Portal or email) before additional work commences. Verbal agreements regarding scope changes are not binding. If the Client provides direction that contradicts earlier approved direction, causing rework, the rework is billable as additional work.

8. Dispute Resolution

Great Creations values its Client relationships and will make every reasonable effort to resolve disagreements. If a dispute arises, the parties agree to the following process:

1. Direct Communication (Required First Step): The parties will attempt to resolve the dispute through good-faith discussion via the Client Portal or direct communication within fifteen (15) business days.
2. Written Complaint: If direct communication does not resolve the matter, either party may submit a formal written complaint outlining the issue, the desired resolution, and supporting documentation.
3. Mediation: If the complaint is not resolved within thirty (30) days, either party may request mediation by a mutually agreed-upon mediator. Mediation costs are shared equally.
4. Legal Action: If mediation is unsuccessful or declined, either party may pursue legal remedies. Any proceedings shall be conducted in the courts of the province of Great Creations' principal place of business, under the federal laws of Canada and the provincial laws applicable in the provinces in which Great Creations operates. International Clients consent to Canadian jurisdiction by engaging Great Creations' services.

9. Chargebacks and Payment Disputes

If the Client initiates a chargeback or payment dispute with their financial institution for services that have been delivered in accordance with the agreed scope, Great Creations reserves the right to: immediately suspend all services and portal access; revoke the licence to any delivered work; pursue recovery of the full invoiced amount plus a $150 CAD administrative fee; and report the dispute to credit agencies or collections services. Clients are encouraged to contact Great Creations directly before initiating chargebacks.

10. Collections

If Great Creations engages a collections agency or legal counsel to recover unpaid fees, the Client is responsible for all associated costs, including agency fees, legal fees, court costs, and accrued interest, in addition to the original balance owed.

11. International Clients

International Clients agree that all payment terms are governed by the federal laws of Canada and the provincial laws applicable in the provinces in which Great Creations operates. Currency conversion is the Client's responsibility. International wire transfer fees are borne by the Client. Great Creations may require advance payment in full for international engagements where other payment methods are not practical.
